

Private Prophetic Message!

I had you turn around 3 times before reading this because I needed you to shake the enemy off! I must tell you, this is YOUR year that darkness is leaving! I was praying for you and the Lord said, the storm you have been facing over the past years must come to an end. 2018 is YOUR year, no MAN on this earth can stop YOU from reaching your DESTINY! This year you must break whatever is stopping you from growth, for I saw someone following and latching onto you from last year! SOMEONE from 2017 is following and has latched onto YOU, and you must break this OFF today!

I had a vision of YOU in prayer, and I saw a dark shadow following you. You must begin taking action to cut this person off TODAY, or I see 2018 becoming a major battle! Next month is not the time, next week is not the time, NOW is the time to take action! Now I need you to go back and finish reading the rest of the message I sent you, but before you do so, I need you to turn around 3 times again. After you have done this, go back to your email and continue reading the special message I sent you!
